

WHAT'S IN A NAME?!

Langsettle?

Quising?

Dorteror?

Many wonderful old words have fallen into disuse and are crying out to be rediscovered! We'd like to introduce you to a few of them and tell you of their origins and uses over the centuries and their links to Malton's history.

Along the way we'll bamboozle, befuddle and bewilder you in a light-hearted game of "Call my Bluff!"

> Will you spot the true definitions amongst the imposters?

> Can you call our bluff?

HOW TIMES / HAVE CHANGED!

The making of a Market Town

> Who traded at 59 Market Place?

> What's an Ostler?

This exciting new talk introduces you to characters from the town's past. Using a wealth of resources including old photographs, census materials and a selection of maps, we will then explain how Malton grew into the town we know today.

BRINGING MALTON'S PAST TO YOU/

Would your group welcome a visit from our learning team? We can share with you some of Malton Museum's exciting and inspiring collection of objects, from flint tools used over 8000 years ago to items you may remember from your childhood.

They all say something unique about our heritage. Sharing the collections with local people is at the heart of everything we do.

We offer four different talks and activities to inform and entertain you. Read a little more about each on the following pages.

We have experience with many different adult groups from W I to special needs groups and can adapt the activities to suit your requirements.

Looking for something different? Contact us to discuss what would suit your group.

EVERY OBJECT TELLS A STORY/

- > Who left the footprint?
- > Who did this pan belong too?

Seeing and handling objects, both real and replica, from the museum's collections will give you a glimpse into the lives of Malton's earlier inhabitants. We will bring some objects whose history is well known and tell you their stories, but there will be others whose history we can only guess at and we'll invite you to share your thoughts and ideas.

A stimulating, interactive session suitable for all groups

HANDS ON HISTORY/

- > Would you like to take a peep behind the scenes?
- > Can you identify what the object is?

We'll explain how an archaeologist works, then it's over to you to decide what you can learn from an object.

We will choose objects according to the interests of your group, and try to include something from your locality.

"Very interesting and informative, made us all get up and talk to each other over the objects."
