

Roman Pot Making Challenge

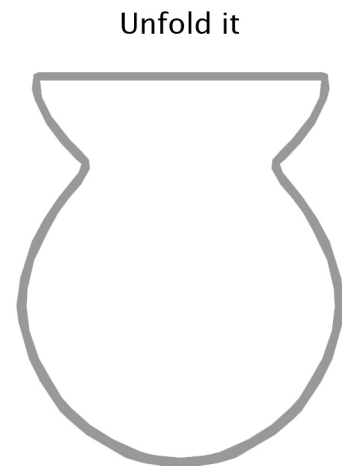

Samian ware was a very fine type of Roman pottery usually decorated with patterns or pictures
Have a go at designing your own Samian Ware pot using the instructions below

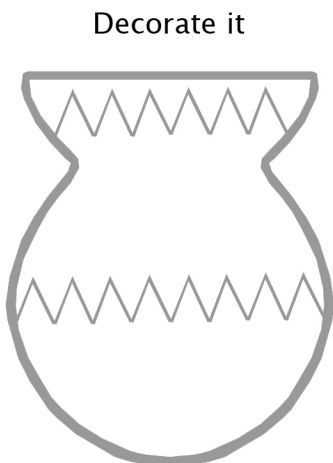

Draw any shape of pot and use all the space on your piece of paper

Keeping the paper folded cut around the outline of your pot

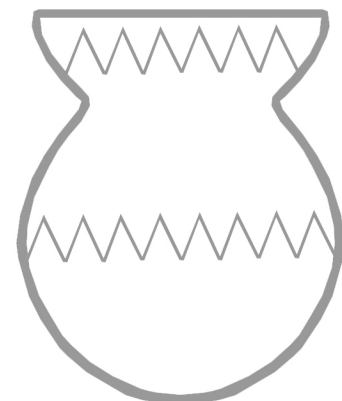

Unfold your pot and turn it over so that it is unmarked by any pencil outlines

Personalise your pot with some of your favourite hobbies or interests

Colour it in with your favourite colour

Samian ware pots were made using bright orange coloured terracotta
