

Friends of Malton Museum lecture series from September 2022 until April 2023

Wednesday 21st September

Yorkshire Wolds Railway

The history of Malton and Driffield Junction Railway up to its current guise as the Yorkshire Wolds Railway - East Yorkshire's heritage railway

by Matthew Brown, Phil Robson

Wednesday 19th October

LiDAR and the Ryevitalise project

Exploring how LiDAR is used to map landscapes and discover archaeological features

by Amy Carrick-Knowles

Wednesday 16th November

The 15th Century East Window of Holy Trinity, Goodramgate

A look into the context and evolution of the subject panels in the 15th century East Window at Holy Trinity church on Goodramgate

by Rob Andrews

Wednesday 18th January

Treasurer's House, York

Glimpsing into the lives of some of the families that have lived in Treasurer's House over the centuries

by Glennis Whyte

Wednesday 15th February

Settrington and Scagglethorpe - a history of violence and sexual slander

A view into historical scandal local to the Malton area

by John Dodsworth

Wednesday 15th of March

A History of Shoemaking

Research into the history of leathercraft and shoemaking

by Payson Müller

Wednesday 19th April

James Pigott Pritchett

A study into the life and works of one of Yorkshire's most prolific architects during the early to mid-nineteenth century

by Graham White
